Our holistic case management approach helps families who are facing multiple barriers in areas such as:

- Basic needs/ life skill challenges
- Safety
- Health
- Family-related challenges
- Legal issues
- Social issues and isolation
- Education and employment challenges

Our Support Includes:

- Initial and ongoing assessment
- Service planning
- Supportive counseling
- Service coordination
- Systems navigation
- Linking to community resources
- Facilitated referrals
- Skill building and cultural education

"The change that I've had is I don't feel so alone anymore. I feel trusted now that I have someone that is on my side to help me. That I don't feel frustrated anymore with answers like no it's not possible. I feel now with this I will be able to achieve many things."

-Single mother of two, living in Canada for 2 years.

Healthy families, strong communities, thriving children and resilient people.
