What does the Family Child Care training look like?

We offer free training and support for people to become Licensed Providers.

Duration: between 6 to 9 months of part time classes.

Classes and workshops will be held during evenings and some Saturdays

Training Includes:

- A 40 hour Red River Polytech College course "Introduction to Family Child Care"
- 2 days of business training
- Various workshops
- First Aid/ CPR training
- Ongoing support and mentorship

What is Licensed Family Child Care?

-Providing child care in your home with a personalized family environment for children to learn and develop.

-The service is provided in your home to a maximum of 8 children under the age of twelve years. There should be no more than 5 children under the age of 6, and no more than 3 children under the age of 2 (including your children and other children living in the home).

Healthy families,
strong communities,
thriving children,
resilient people.
